⋈ ⋈ Now Accepting Summer Students!

Lessons and Specialized Courses

Summer Music Theory Courses

Register now! Thinking of taking AP Music Theory? Interested in learning how to compose music? Have a young student who is eager to learn more about music? These classes are recommended for the student considering a degree in music, for the dedicated musician looking for a deeper understanding of music or to introduce young students to concepts and practices outside of traditional piano theory.

Classes are held weekday afternoons, twice a week at Marquis Hall, Coe College, June 8-August 15. Summer vacations are anticipated and will not be an issue. Email Matt at mpwheele@coe.edu for more information and to register for a class! The class is $75 per student, all materials are provided.

Composition and Piano Lessons and Composer's Class

Composition Lessons are given for the student just beginning to explore and discover the joys of writing music or for the budding composer to get feedback, advice and encouragement. Lessons are held weekly. Purchase of Sibelius Music Notation Software is strongly advised. Composer's Class is also offered as a once a week class at Coe College. Students of all ages and abilities will study composition forms and structure and participate in class projects. Email Matt at mpwheele@coe.edu for more information! Piano Lessons with Matt or Danielle are also available for students of any age and interest!
